

IDLA Annual Conference 2010

April 16, 2010

Altoona, Iowa, Adventureland Inn

CALL FOR PROPOSALS:

DUE: DECEMBER 15, 2009

We invite presentation proposals in the forms of:

- 1 hour break-out session

And, NEW this year... (if there is sufficient interest)

- Poster presentations (standard posters, as well as laptop presentations will be considered.)
- Speed presentations: 10 minute technology round up. Bring your favorite form of distance education technology to share at a round table.

Who should apply?

Individuals associated with higher education, K-12, and corporate and non-profit training/education.

This year's IACON conference will focus around the following areas:

- Instructional technology/classroom gadgets
- Evaluation of distance learning programs
- Social utilities in distance classrooms/creating community online
- Blended classrooms/ learning

If you have a topic that does not fit into one of these areas, but you would like to share the information, feel free to submit under "Other".

In an email message, please note the theme your proposal fits under, your session title, and a 500 word description of your session and send to Jean Cross at: jean.cross@drake.edu Please label your subject line: "IACON Conference Proposal Submission."

If accepted, please bring your own laptop and LCD projector. If you do not have an LCD projector, notify us so we can have one set up in your room for you. Screens for presentations are provided.

Proposals will be reviewed in a timely manner, and you will be notified by, January 15, 2010 about your status as a presenter. If you have not heard back by that time, email susanfey@iastate.edu

Place: Altoona, Iowa at the Adventureland Inn,

<http://www.adventurelandpark.com/index.php?option=content&task=blogcategory&id=21&Itemid=49>

305 34th Avenue, Altoona, Iowa 50009 (515) 265-7321 or (800) 910-5382 (Adjacent to Adventureland Amusement Park).

If you need to come in the night before the conference, there is a reduced rate available at the Adventureland Inn.